CONSENT FOR SERVICES

Services of this type involves both benefits and risks. Risks include the possibility of experiencing uncomfortable levels of feelings like sadness, guilt, anxiety, anger, loneliness and helplessness as we process through your history and the events that have led to you seeking services. This work often requires recalling experiences, some of which may be unpleasant and may involve making changes that can feel uncomfortable to you and those close to you. Should you notice any negative effects, please tell me immediately. I will make every effort to remedy the situation or provide you with names of therapists should you need a referral. The objective is to strengthen your abilities, increase self-efficacy and support you as you move forward in your recovery.

APPOINTMENTS

The length of a usual appointment is 90 minutes, except for the initial intake session which may take up to 2.5 hrs. Appointments are usually scheduled weekly and on a regular basis until you have accomplished the majority of your goals and other arrangements are made.

CONFIDENTIALITY

As part of the counseling process, I am bound by ethical responsibilities to keep confidential the information shared during the sessions and I will not release any information without your written permission. There are important exceptions to the confidentiality of the counseling relationship. I am required by law to reveal certain information under the following circumstances:

- a) Disclosure of serious intent to do harm to self or others
- b) Disclosure of child abuse or my suspicion of child abuse, elder abuse, or dependent adult abuse
- c) If a court of law orders the release of specific information
- d) If you do not meet the terms of a court ordered contract, I am obligated to report non-compliance to the appropriate parties.

If you have any questions about these policies, please ask before signing. Your signature indicates that you have read this policy and agree to enter therapy under these conditions. Further, it indicates your understanding that I may terminate therapy if you do not comply with the policies or if I feel you are not benefiting from treatment.
